On the second section, user can find some more information on New projects, International Collaboration, Intellectual Property and others (see below).

Irish-based researchers can search for eligible Sao Paulo-based researcher by clicking on 'Advanced search' at the top of the Homepage as shown below.

Users are encouraged to click on the 'Search' button rather than filling the information in the fields which appear when clicking 'Advanced search'.

By clicking 'Search', users will be forwarded to the page with all live FAPESP awards a per below:
